

Preliminary Program
Online Workshop on Survey Experiments in Migration and Integration
January 8th and 29th 2021 University of Lausanne, IDHEAP

This is the third of a series of international workshops previously held at the Universities of Lausanne, and Berne that aim at gathering experts on the topic of experimental methodology and immigration and integration research, to present their work in progress and have in-depth discussions on relevant academic debates.

In this edition of the Survey Experiment in Migration and Integration Research, we will have a few different panels. Some will focus on the survey experiment methodology and others will focus on the immigration and integration research that is carried out by means of such experimental methods.

Organization:

Flavia Fossati, University of Lausanne
Didier Ruedin, University of Neuchâtel

Funding:

IDHEAP, University of Lausanne, Nccr-on the Move, University of Neuchâtel, and NCCR-LIVES, University of Lausanne
